

Freedom of Information request reference number: FOIA 6467.1

Date of response: 03/05/2021

Request:

Please provide any evidence you hold that the enforcement of yellow boxes outside Homerton and West Hill fire stations has led to less delays to fire engines leaving the fire stations.

Response:

The LFB does not record this type of information so we wouldn't hold what has been asked. Sorry for any disappoint this may cause.

We have dealt with your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. For more information about this process please see the guidance we publish about making a request on our website:
