

Freedom of Information request reference number: 7043.1

Date of response: 22/12/2022

Request:

Could you please tell me how many senior officers, station commander and above have been accused of plagiarism for copying course work or assessments and were not awarded a sanction.

Response:

We can confirm that we do not hold this information due to having no record of cases of a Station Commander and above being accused of plagiarism.

We have dealt with your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. For more information about this process please see the guidance we publish about making a request on our website:
