1 Introduction

- 1.1 This policy sets out the Brigade's arrangements when special leave for particular occasions and circumstances may be given and applies to all employees.
- 1.2 This policy should be applied in line with the Brigade's values:
- Service – We put the public first.
  - Courage – We step up to the challenge.
  - Learning – We listen so that we can improve.
  - Teamwork – We work together and include everyone.
  - Equity – We treat everyone fairly according to their needs.
  - Integrity – We act with honesty.

2 Special leave

Prescription

- 2.1 Special leave with or without pay may be given at the discretion of the Brigade. When granting special leave account will be taken of your circumstances including outstanding annual leave, attendance records and any special leave previously granted. Any leave granted will be subject to the exigencies of the service. Special leave may be either paid or unpaid up to a maximum of 10 days in the normal 12 month leave period, 1 January to 31 December for operational staff, and 1 April to 31 March for FRS and Control. It should be noted that special leave is not an allowance and should not be seen as an entitlement to be used up.
- 2.2 Special leave is divided into three broad categories for all staff. The provisions for leave for public duties and armed forces training are separate from the special leave arrangements. Further details for categories of special leave and leave for public duties can be found in the appendices to this policy.
- (a) Compassionate/domestic leave - this provision allows paid time off for serious illness and/or bereavement of family members and certain personal and domestic situations.
- (b) Dependants leave – this provides for you to take a reasonable amount of paid or unpaid time off work to deal with certain unexpected or sudden emergencies and to make any necessary longer term arrangements. This provision is for unforeseen matters. The emergency must involve your dependant. In the policy a dependant is defined as the spouse, civil partner, partner (regardless of gender), child or parent of yours, or someone who shares your household as the employee* and has a caring commitment. In cases of illness or injury, or where core arrangements break down, a dependant may also be someone who reasonably relies on you for assistance. This may be where you are the primary carer or the only person who can help in an emergency.
- *This does not include tenants or boarders living in the family home, or someone who lives in the same household as you such as a live in housekeeper.
- (c) Official Brigade duties – this provision allows paid or unpaid time off to attend certain Brigade functions or events in a representative capacity, personal investiture with an honour or decoration, participation in Brigade sports as a member of the Brigade sports team, or an official Fire Services Team. An example where such leave would normally be granted with pay would include a personal investiture. An example of unpaid special leave would include participation in Brigade or national sports events.

- 2.3 Subject to paragraph 2.1 and 2.2 above, leave may be allowed in accordance with the guidelines set out in Appendix 1. This outlines the recommended categories of special leave available in different circumstances. Your manager has discretion over the period they allow you to have special leave. They must however take into account your circumstances, as set out in paragraph 2.1 and balance that with the principle that special leave is only granted in exceptional circumstances and the total amount of paid and/or unpaid special leave should not exceed 10 days in the twelve month period as previously specified. Only in very exceptional circumstances can these provisions be extended and only with the approval of the appropriate director/head of service/assistant commissioner in consultation with the Assistant Director People Services.

3 Public duties

Prescription

- 3.1 The Brigade recognises and values the work of its employees in performing public duties for the benefit of the community it serves. To that end a limited amount of paid leave is made available for you to continue to perform such duties of public character. This must be balanced against the needs of the Brigade to provide a front line emergency service; therefore paid leave is limited to the duties set out below.
- 3.2 Public duties includes staff who serve as a Justice of the Peace (JP) or as a member of a local authority, or who fulfils other duties of a public character such as membership of a statutory tribunal, a police authority, a board of prison visitors or prison visiting committee, a relevant health authority, a relevant education body or the Environment Agency. If undertaking public duties you may be granted up to the equivalent of 15 days leave with pay (20 days a year for service as a JP, Local Authority Leader of the Council, Local Authority Committee Chair) for such purposes. Any leave granted for public duties in excess of 15 or 20 days a year, as appropriate, shall be without pay, and shall be subject in each case to the agreement of the Assistant Director, People Services.
- 3.3 Jury Service - leave of absence will be granted to you for the purpose of serving on a jury. See paragraph 8.1 regarding allowances paid to jury members.
- 3.4 Information regarding the categories for leave for public duties can be found in Appendix 2.

4 Leave for training undertaken under the Reserve Forces Act 1996

- 4.1 Regular and Voluntary Reservists shall be allowed up to 10 days paid special leave which will be subject to deduction from salary of any pay received from the MOD. Application for special leave

5 Application for special leave

- 5.1 If, for any reason you need leave of absence at a time when you should normally be on duty, you must make an application beforehand as described in the following paragraphs. The application form may be accessed via this link: Templates & Resources > Leave & Working Arrangements category (or search for: Form 308 Application for Special Leave

Special leave (all categories) and leave for public duties

- 5.2 Special Leave form (F 308) must be completed in all circumstances and must be supported by relevant evidence whenever possible (and the reasons if no evidence is provided). This evidence is to be scanned to your ePRF by the Area Team with the completed F 308 within 7 days of it being authorised by your manager. You should complete the form and submit it for authorisation at the earliest opportunity as "failure to submit the completed form and supply supporting evidence within one month of the end of the period of special leave may result in the special leave being unpaid, with appropriate adjustments being made in the next available pay-run.

Training with HM Forces (reservist) and Jury Service

- 5.3 If you require special leave to undertake a period of reservist training as part of your obligations under the Reserve Forces Act 1996 or to serve on a jury, you should make your application on the attached form, as soon as the need for leave is known, giving all relevant information available at the time. The notice to undertake training or to serve on a jury must be shown to your manager in a role/grade not less than sub/station officer/FRS D/control commander. Your manager should copy and retain any documentation on your e-PRF.
- 5.4 Regular and Voluntary Reservists shall be allowed up to 10 days paid special leave in any leave year which will be subject to deduction from salary of any pay received from the MOD. Payments made by the MOD under their bounty scheme shall not be subject to deduction from Brigade salary. Please refer to Policy number 947 - Outside employment in the reserve forces policy.

6 Accountability and monitoring

- 6.1 The special leave provisions are to be used in exceptional circumstances only. It is not an allowance to be used up and all special leave granted will be monitored. Alleged misuse of the special leave provisions will be investigated and you may be subject to disciplinary action. Your manager will be accountable for authorising special leave applications. Please refer to Policy number 392 – Discipline (Conduct) procedure.

7 Authorisation for special leave and leave for public duties (manager's actions)

- 7.1 You should satisfy yourself that all other avenues for dealing with personal and domestic situations have been explored before granting special leave. This should include; taking account of the applicant's existing leave entitlements, and the use of the exchange of duty arrangements or consideration of alternative dates for the event (where appropriate) for which special leave is requested. Only when all these options have been investigated should special leave be considered. You must take into account the impact on service delivery if you are granting the leave. It should be noted that special leave is over and above the station/rota book leave allocation, and in special circumstances, that of Control too.
- 7.2 Upon receipt of an application, you must satisfy yourself that the leave requested is required for the purpose stated. You will obtain any documentation which may be considered necessary to support the application, for example court subpoena or jury papers. Generally, it is not expected that an employee will provide, for example, medical certificates or letters in the case of a dependant's illness. However, the right is reserved for the requirement of such evidence, if the circumstances warrant it.

As an applicant you should ensure that any supporting documentation available is provided to the manager.

- 7.3 It should be noted that:

- (a) Special leave granted to control staff will normally be included as part of the watch, shift or section allowance. However, in exceptional, short notice circumstances, the control commander authorising such an application will consult the duty brigade control senior manager.
- (b) An application for special leave can only be authorised by an appropriate line manager in a role or grade not less than station commander/FRS D/control commander. See Appendix 1 and Appendix 2 for authorisation requirements.
- (c) All special leave granted will be subject to the exigencies of the service and as the manager you are responsible for confirming that the supporting documentation, where required, has been provided by the employee e.g. for public duties.
- (d) Where an employee works part time or job-share, special leave provisions should be adjusted on a pro-rata basis. For example, an employee who is part time and works 50% of the 'standard' working hours could be granted a maximum of five days in the specified 12 month period, see paragraph 2.1.

7.4 The line manager is responsible for checking if any further action is required including the notification to HR Services of any adjustments to salaries. This includes any loss of earning allowances that might be deducted through Public Service provisions.

7.5 The line manager is responsible for ensuring that the appropriate line/rota book manager is informed to enter the details of special leave onto StARS. Please refer to the StARS guidance notes on hotwire for details of how to do this.

7.6 For staff working at stations or in Area Teams, any special leave application F 308, which has been authorised at the appropriate level as outlined in paragraph 7.3, together with any supporting documentation, should be forwarded to the respective Area Team for processing. Station staff should not update the F 308 Received box on StARS. This should only be updated by Area Team staff following receipt of the F 308.

7.7 Following processing, special leave applications will be forwarded by the line manager/Area Teams/HR Services, to the Records Services (Third Floor Union Street) for filing on the individual's Personal Record File. As mentioned in paragraph 7.4 any leave requiring salary adjustment must be forwarded to the HR Services team.

7.8 Urgent applications for special leave will be dealt with by the line manager or the officer of the day on the understanding of the applicant that in each case leave granted is allowed provisionally, pending full consideration of the application. If the application is then disallowed or only allowed in part, the leave may have to be (a) without pay, or (b) where neither paid nor unpaid leave can be approved, made up by the applicant, by counting it against outstanding annual, long service, public holiday or option absence leave as appropriate.

8 Allowances paid to an employee for public duties

8.1 Jury service –Staff will give prior notification of their Jury summons to their line manager and the HR Services who will issue a 'Confirmation of Jury Service' letter detailing the claims process to be followed. An employee serving as a juror will be issued with a Remittance Advice Form on the final day of Jury Service when dismissed; or it will be posted to them within a week. It is your responsibility to claim the loss of earnings to which you are entitled under the Jurors' Allowances Regulations currently in force. The form must be sent to HR Services within 1 month of completing your jury service. An amount equal to the allowance received will be deducted from your net pay in the month following your return to work from jury service. For the purpose of calculating 'average pensionable pay' under the Firefighter's and Local Government Pension Schemes), it will be assumed that such a deduction did not take place.

- 8.2 If you serve as a Justice of the Peace or as a member of a Local Authority you will claim a loss of earnings allowance or any other allowance to which you would have been entitled under Section 177(2) of the Local Government act 1972, or any other statutory enactment. An amount equal to the allowance received will be deducted from your net pay. For the purpose of calculating 'average pensionable pay' under the Firefighters's and Local Government Pension Schemes, it will be assumed that such a deduction did not take place.
- 8.3 If you take paid special leave for reservist training, you must send a copy of your MOD payslip/remittance details to HR Services within 1 month of completing your training. An amount equal to the pay received will be deducted from your net pay in the month following your return to work from training. Payments made by the MOD under their bounty scheme shall not be subject to deduction from Brigade salary. For the purpose of calculating 'average pensionable pay' under the Firefighter's Pension Scheme, or Local Government Pension Scheme, it will be assumed that such a deduction did not take place.

9 Deductions from salary

- 9.1 When special leave is granted without pay, deductions from salary will be calculated on a pro-rata basis according to your rate of pay and the time spent away from duty, part of an hour being reckoned as an hour. For the purposes of deductions a days pay will be determined using the standard format for calculating a day's pay.
- 9.2 As detailed in paragraph 8.1, you are required to make a loss of earnings claim through the court service and to return the court remittance slip to HR Services at the earliest opportunity, within 1 month of your dismissal from Jury service. If you fail to do so, you will be notified by e-mail in advance that an amount equivalent to your maximum loss of earnings entitlement under the Jurors' Allowances Regulations will be deducted from your salary within 2 months of your return to work from jury service.

10 Rota leave and off-duty periods adjoining or during special leave

- 10.1 Rota leave or off-duty days immediately preceding or following a period of special leave, or forming the first or last day of such a period, are to be regarded as rota leave or off-duty days. Any rota leave days or off-duty days falling within a period of special leave are also to be counted as rota leave or off-duty days.

11 Recording of special leave and leave for public duties

- 11.1 All special leave and leave for public duties must be recorded on StARS. Where leave granted is equal to or less than half a duty period, it shall be recorded as half a day's leave; leave in excess of half a duty period shall be recorded as a day's leave.
- 11.2 StARS will automatically record the amount of special leave granted to you. A warning box will appear once you have been granted 10 days special leave in the 12 month period.

12 Parental bereavement leave

- 12.1 With the introduction of the Parental Bereavement (Leave and Pay) Act 2018, the LFB will grant two calendar weeks of Parental Bereavement Leave (PBL) for employees following the death of a child under the age of 18. This will be at full pay and will not count against the normal provision of up to 10 days Special Leave. This would be automatic and cover two tours for staff following a Watch pattern.

12.2 If a child is stillborn after 24 weeks pregnancy the birthing mother/parent is entitled to normal maternity provisions, see appropriate section of Policy number 555 – Family support leave (including maternity) policy, but will be eligible to take PBL at the end of this period, provided it is completed within 56 weeks of that date. Other parents of the child are entitled to PBL provisions as set out in this policy.

12.3 PBL provisions apply to the:

- Parent;
- adoptive parent, if the child was living with them;
- person who lived with the child and had responsibility for them, for at least 4 weeks before they died;
- 'intended parent' – due to become the legal parent through surrogacy;
- partner of the child's parent regardless of gender, if they live with the child and the child's parent in an enduring family relationship.

12.4 The general conditions of PBL are as follows:

- PBL can be taken within 56 weeks following the child's death. The date of the child's death is the first day of the 56 weeks.
- If more than one child dies, the employee is entitled to two calendar weeks PBL for each child.
- An employee can choose to take either one or two weeks leave. If an employee takes two weeks, this can be taken in one go, or as two separate weeks.
- To give notice to take PBL the employee must tell their line manager or the HR HelpDesk when they want the leave to start; whether they want to take one or two weeks leave; and the date their child died. This notice does not have to be in writing.
- If PBL is taken within 8 weeks of their child dying, an employee can start their leave as soon as they give notice. PBL can be taken on the first day that notice is given provided this is before the employee is due to start work, otherwise PBL must start the following day.
- PBL can be cancelled as long as notice of this is given before this starts. This can be on the day PBL is due to start as long as this is before the employee is due to start work. Any cancelled leave can be taken later by giving notice again.
- If PBL is taken more than 8 weeks since their child died, the employee must give one week's notice (a) to take the leave; and (b) to cancel the leave. Again, any cancelled leave can be taken later by giving notice again.

12.5 The absence code 'PBL' for Parental Bereavement Leave is found in StARS under 'New'/'Other'.

13 Carers leave

13.1 The Carer's Leave Act came into force on 6 April 2024. Employees are entitled to unpaid leave to give or arrange care for a 'dependant' who has:

- (a) A physical or mental illness or injury that means they're expected to need care for more than 3 months.
- (b) A disability (as defined in the Equality Act 2010).
- (c) Care needs because of their old age.

The dependant does not have to be a family member. It can be anyone who relies on them for care.

- 13.2 You are entitled to take carer's leave from your first day of employment. You can take up to one week of leave every 12 months. A 'week' means the length of time that you usually work over 7 days. For example, if someone usually works 4 days a week, they can take 4 days of carer's leave. You can either take a whole week off or take individual days or half days throughout the year.
- 13.3 You will need to give the Brigade notice before you want to start your leave. If the request is for half a day or a full day, the notice period must be at least 3 days. If the request is for more than one day, the notice period must be at least twice as long as the requested leave. For example, if the request is for 2 days, the notice period must be at least 4 days. The notice period needs to be in full days, even if the request includes half day amounts. Please provide a record of your request using the special leave form. You do not need to give evidence of your dependant's specific care needs. But outside of leave arrangements you might wish to consider other Brigade support available to you such as requesting a reasonable adjustment to support your caring responsibilities using the Workplace adjustments passport.
- 13.4 Carers leave should be recorded as Carers Absence (CA) on StARs. Managers cannot refuse a carer's leave request but can ask the employee to take it at a different time. They can only do this if the employee's absence would cause serious disruption to the organisation.
- If they delay it, the manager must:
- (a) Agree another date within one month of the requested date for the leave to be taken.
  - (b) Put the reason for the delay and new date in writing to the employee (e.g. this can be by return of email) within 7 days of the original request, and before the requested start date of the leave.
- 13.5 Please also see the Carers Page on hotwire for more information regarding support for staff with caring responsibilities.

14 Records

- 14.1 Please send records by email to RecordsServices@london-fire.gov.uk. Records will be kept on your electronic personal record file (e-prf) and retained in accordance with Policy number 788 - Electronic personal record file. Personal data shall be processed in accordance with Policy number 351 – Data protection and privacy policy.

15 Help and support

- 15.1 Please contact the HR Helpdesk on extension 89100 option 3 and by email to IT.HR@london-fire.gov.uk.

- 15.3 The Brigade invites your engagement so that it can learn so if you have a suggestion that can improve this policy then please submit your idea via the Staff Suggestion Scheme on Hotwire as set out in Policy number 887 – Staff suggestion scheme. Any changes do need to go through the agreed engagement, consultation, negotiation or governance requirements.
