Request:

I'm writing to request an estimate of the London Fire Brigade's response time for our premises at the Faraday Wing, London South Bank University (Keyworth Street, SE1 6NG).

Response:

The London fire brigade do not provide estimates of response times.

You can check actual response times to previous incidents at London South Bank University on the London Data store here London Fire Brigade Incident Records - London Datastore. First and second pump attendance times are included on columns AD and AF.

You can also check the Response times section on our 2023-2029 plan here Measuring our success 2023-2029 \(london-fire.gov.uk\)
